

South China Morning Post

CITY|| CITY

2012-04-09

City Digest

Bomb hoax grounds plane for two hours

A bomb scare grounded a plane for two hours at Chek Lap Kok airport yesterday. Passengers were evacuated from Shanghai-bound China Eastern Airlines flight MU502 after it was halted on the runway at 12.30pm. Nothing suspicious was found and it left at 2.45pm. It was believed to have been a hoax call.

Two men arrested for indecent assault

Two men were arrested for indecent assault in separate incidents. A 37-year-old man was arrested and charged after he allegedly indecently assaulted a 28-year-old woman at Tai Koo MTR station at about 7am. A man, 73, was arrested outside Ting Fuk House on On Ting Estate, Tuen Mun, at about 8am after a girl, 17, reported being indecently assaulted. He was being held for investigation.

CY Leung urged to act on ethnic minorities early

The education needs of ethnic minorities have been ignored for years, Hong Kong Unison executive director Fermi Wong told a radio audience yesterday, adding that she hoped the new government would propose measures to help children from minorities to learn Cantonese. Wong did not rule out Unison taking legal action against the government for discrimination if it failed to act.

Protest march calls for action on public housing

Democratic Alliance for the Betterment and Progress of Hong Kong members and people on the public housing waiting list marched on the office of chief executive-elect Leung Chun-ying to urge him to solve the city's housing problems.

Thieves lift the lids on Cheung Sha Wan drains

Thieves have stolen dozens of drain covers in Cheung Sha Wan. A cleaner on the intersection of Lin Cheung Road and Lai Po Road raised the alarm and a search found more than 40 covers were missing.

Drivers seriously hurt in head-on collision

The drivers of a car and taxi were seriously injured when their vehicles collided head-on after the car swerved into the oncoming lane in Cheung Sha Wan.

CITY
DIGEST*Bomb hoax grounds plane for two hours

A bomb scare grounded a plane for two hours at Chek Lap Kok airport yesterday. Passengers were evacuated from Shanghai-bound China Eastern Airlines flight MU502 after it was halted on the runway at 12.30pm. Nothing suspicious was found and it left at 2.45pm. It was believed to have been a hoax call.

Two men arrested for indecent assault

Two men were arrested for indecent assault in separate incidents. A 37-year-old man was arrested and charged after he allegedly indecently assaulted a 28-year-old woman at Tai Koo MTR station at about 7am. A man, 73, was arrested outside Ting Fuk House on On Ting Estate, Tuen Mun, at about 8am after a girl, 17, reported being indecently assaulted. He was being held for investigation.

CY Leung urged to act on ethnic minorities early

The education needs of ethnic minorities have been ignored for years, Hong Kong Unison executive director Fermi Wong told a radio audience yesterday, adding that she hoped the new government would propose measures to help children from minorities to learn Cantonese. Wong did not rule out Unison taking legal action against the government for discrimination if it failed to act.

Protest march calls for action on public housing

Democratic Alliance for the Betterment and Progress of Hong Kong members and people on the public housing waiting list marched on the office of chief executive-elect Leung Chun-ying to urge him to solve the city's housing problems.

Thieves lift the lids on Cheung Sha Wan drains

Thieves have stolen dozens of drain covers in Cheung Sha Wan. A cleaner on the intersection of Lin Cheung Road and Lai Po Road raised the alarm and a search found more than 40 covers were missing.

Drivers seriously hurt in head-on collision

The drivers of a car and taxi were seriously injured when their vehicles collided head-on after the car swerved into the oncoming lane in Cheung Sha Wan.

Source: Wisers electronic service. The copyright of this content is owned by the relevant media organization / copyright owner. Any reproduction, adaptation, distribution or dissemination of this content without express authorization is strictly prohibited. All rights reserved.

----- 1 -----

Enquiry: (852) 2948 3880 Email: info@wisers.com Web site: <http://www.wisers.com>
Copyright (c)2012Wisers Information Limited. All Rights Reserved.
Print out of Wisers electronic service